I want to start to by saying that Clash of Clans is (or should be) the most successful mobile game out there. And I've been astonished by the amount of improvement it's had across the years. 5 years ago I thought this game could not possibly be any better, I still have a lot to work for and I will continue to thrive to do that, yet this game has continued to impress me. There is just one thing that I could ask; I hope one day there are far more challenges in the profile menu. Maybe challenges that are set far aside from being gems (because they are meant to be valuable) but challenges which are meant to be hard which are more different recourses than gems. If you game creators are seeing this, I know what you're thinking; that's why we created the season pass, but as a whole the rewards in the personal profile could be much better, especially in the capital hall. Such as destroy Super Wizard Tower's or Capital Hall's. It is NOT in any way something that is necessary but something that I expect to happen. Not because of this comment but because of the high expectations I have from this game, because of how much it has grown in the last 10 years as a whole. Keep doing what you're doing clash gamers and creators. You are what makes this game whole. I love CoC. For many reasons, but the main reason is this game is a time consuming game. It's also quite F2P when you think about it. I do have some recommendations though First: Maybe like one day every week you can half the cost of building upgrades. I understand you have a certain day/week for that, but building upgrade prices get outrageous after Town Hall 8. Second: Building time needs to be reduced. After Town Hall 8 (Again) time reaches over a day for every building meaning just maxing out your base is going to take a good 1-2 months of constant work. Third: Why are we paying gold to search for multiplayer battles? Why aren't they just free? I mean it's not that much of an issue because it's really easy to get that amount, but why do we have to if it's so cheap? Why don't you just remove it? Last: For Town Hall 15 and after don't give them weapons. Bases are well defended as it is, and it's a hassle to spend so much gold on weapons that aren't THAT powerful. Don't recommend having them, but you do you supercell. Alright. So those are most of my recommendations. Don't get me wrong I LOVE Clash of Clans and I hope to see you guys strive to be the most amazing game / company in the world! Just rest a little more ease to your player base. They'll appreciate it a lot that's for sure. I LOVE YOU GUYS SO MUCH AND KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK ❤🫶 Clash is a wonderful game but it is plagued with non game nuisance like upgrade timers and artificial length. The game could be about playing it but it becomes just about waiting for upgrades to finish 95% of the time. The solution clash of clans introduced from the beginning I believe is still just spend money to speed things up. If I wanted to catch up to another player that has been playing longer than me, I would need to spend hundreds of dollars maybe even thousands to speed up something that could be a click of a button. The game isn't even about raiding to get enough gold or elixir, it's about playing for a day in between a 3-7 day window while you wait for your town to build up instead of playing the game 3-7 days to earn enough resources to upgrade your buildings. The involvement with clan wars and I guess the rank system are the only thing you could consider to be daily playable progress and you are going to hit a level of base you can't make progress on until your troops are high enough level eventually anyways. It's just a shame that this could be a game I play instead of a game I look at. I shouldn't be angry at a simple game but it's hard not to when I look at it and can't upgrade or progress for 5 days while my builders finish making my air defense do ~5-10% more damage maybe. The clan bases and daily incentives are cool but it doesn't matter when you have full storage for a week and can't do anything. Win a Versus Battle by getting the most stars, or dealing more damage if tied. Upgrade the Builder Hall to unlock advanced buildings and troops!" Level 1 Level 2 Level 3 Level 4 Level 5 Level 6 Level 7 Level 8 Level 9 The Builder Hall is the equivalent of the Town Hall in the Home Village or the Goblin Hall in the Single Player Campaign. Protection of the Builder Hall is critical for preventing players from getting one star on your base in an attack. The Builder Base can be accessed by reaching Town Hall 4 and repairing the broken boat on the sea shore. The level 1 Builder Hall is broken and has graves, along with several broken buildings surrounding it when it is first encountered in the tutorial. These include: Star Laboratory, Gem Mine, Clock Tower, Battle Machine, Elixir Collector, Gold Mine, Cannon, Army Camp, and Builder Barracks. During the tutorial, the Builder Hall is upgraded to level 2, and in doing so buildings immediately surrounding apart from the Gem Mine, Clock Tower and Battle Machine are automatically repaired. In addition to this, the Boat is also repaired and the Raged Barbarian is upgraded to level 2. You must place all buildings available from the current Builder Hall level before you are able to upgrade the Builder Hall. Exceptions to this rule are the Gem Mine, Clock Tower, and Battle Machine, for which repairing is optional. The Builder Hall is best placed in the center protected by buildings as it gives a star to your opponent when destroyed. This is critical as the number of stars is compared first before the damage percentage, and if your opponent can get to the Builder Hall, they will most likely get more than 50%, giving them at least a 2-star. Do not place your Builder Hall in a corner surrounded by Walls: troops can still be placed next to the Builder Hall. The Crusher is extremely good at protecting the Builder Hall because of its high damage in a small radius. Make sure to protect it using defenses with a longer range to prevent ranged troops to snipe away at them. Unlike the Town Hall in the Home Village, it can be beneficial to "rush" (quickly upgrade) the Builder Hall, as loot penalty does not exist — loot won is determined solely by the number of Versus Trophies that you have. Additionally, at higher Builder Hall levels, you can unlock new buildings and troops as well as new levels for existing troops and buildings. Indeed, it can also be beneficial to rush the Builder Hall to unlock O.T.T.O as quickly as possible, thus enabling the Master Builder to be used as an extra builder in the Home Village. The Builder Hall undergoes significant visual changes at all levels. At level 1, the Builder Hall appears as a ruined orange-roofed house with a damaged chimney. At level 2, the structure (including chimney) is repaired. The ladder on the top aligns with the "Builder's Hut" on top. At level 3, the rear of the building gains an additional floor, as well as a ladder on the side. At level 4, the "Builder's Hut" panel now sits on a stone structure on top of the lower front roof of the building. A ladder is placed next to the newly built stone structure. At level 5, the stone structure on the roof extends to the entire width of the building. One of the ladders is also gone. At level 6, the front of the building gains an additional floor and the roof becomes one piece again. The entrance arch is now fully visible, along with a more pleasant appearance to the structure. It gains a framing on the front of the Builder Hall. At level 7, the Builder Hall gains two gears on the side, which seems to continue underground. Furthermore, a hatch on the back right side of the building is seen open, with glowing red-orange light coming out of it, presumably a forge. Most of the vines disappear from the Builder Hall. At level 8, two chimneys appear at the end of the roof in place of the single chimney at the corner. All vegetation disappears from the building. A third gear is also added to the side of the structure and the roof is now flat going downwards instead of going up then back down. At level 9, the two chimneys are slightly shortened and reinforced with a stone base. The bases of the gears are now yellow/gold. The roof goes up then stops at the stone base and then back down. The Builder Hall also gets stone brick supports on the front. At each Builder Hall level, new buildings are unlocked. The below table shows the unlocked buildings and traps by Builder Hall level. Where "New" is written, one of that building or trap is unlocked unless otherwise stated in brackets. Many ruined buildings that appear when first entering the Builder Base are repaired by upgrading the Builder Hall to level 2. As such, ruined Builder Hall 1 buildings that are repaired by upgrading to Builder Hall 2 will be listed under Builder Hall 1, while buildings actually unlocked at Builder Hall 2 will be listed under Builder Hall 2. Other ruined buildings (Gem Mine, etc.) that are not fixed by upgrading to Builder Hall 2 are listed at the Builder Hall level they can be repaired. Wall unlocks will be shown by the number of Wall pieces unlocked, not by the number of 5-piece segments unlocked; this is how the unlocks are displayed in the game. Builder Hall Unlocks 1 Cannon*, Gold Mine*, Elixir Collector*, Army Camp*, Builder Barracks*, Star Laboratory*. 2 Archer Tower, Double Cannon, Gold Storage, Elixir Storage, Push Trap. 3 Gem Mine (able to rebuild), Hidden Tesla, Firecrackers, Crusher, Spring Trap. Mine. 4 Clock Tower (able to rebuild), Guard Post, Air Bombs, Mega Mine. 5 Battle Machine Altar (able to rebuild), Multi Mortar 6 Roaster 7 Giant Cannon 8 Mega Tesla 9 O.T.T.O Hut, Lava Launcher *These buildings are already there when first traveling to the Builder Base. They are repaired during the tutorial. History When the Builder Base was released on 22/05/17, there were only five Builder Hall levels. Although data for Builder Halls up to level 8 were present in the game files, they were not available until later. Builder Hall 6 was added on 27/06/17. Builder Hall 7 was added on 29/09/17. Builder Hall 8 was added on 05/03/18. Builder Hall 9 was added on 18/06/19. Trivia The Builder Base does not have Builder's Huts. Instead, the Master Builder lives in the Builder Hall. At Builder Hall 9, though, the O.T.T.O Hut is unlocked, which gives you a second builder, and allows, if the Master Builder's Hut has been placed in the Home Village, to have your Master Builder travel between the two villages. The Builder Boat, which sits at the other side of the dock from your Boat, is unlocked at Builder Hall level 3. This boat allows the Master Builder to gear up your defenses in your Home Village. However, the first defense available to gear up, the Cannon, can only be geared up at Builder Hall 4, as the Double Cannon must be level 4, which you can only get at Builder Hall 4. During the tutorial, Versus Battles are introduced by attacking "Master Jimmy" from the clan "The Order". This is just a fictitious enemy and not a real online player. The clan name is a reference to the clan "The Order", which is known to be the first clan to ever exist in the game. He uses 4 Sneaky Archers, 2 Cannon Carts and a Drop Ship, although it is impossible to unlock both the Cannon Cart and Drop Ship at his Builder Hall level. You cannot replay his attack. The tutorial battle cannot be lost or drawn, even if the player were to score 0% (Versus Battle rules typically mean that scoring 0% nets a draw at best, under the circumstance that the opponent also scores 0%). Before upgrading the Builder Hall to level 2, buildings can be selected but not interacted with. The graves can be collected, though. All buildings and traps (except for the Builder Barracks, Spring Trap, Battle Machine, Army Camp, and O.T.T.O Hut) have a level cap of equivalent value to that of your Builder Hall. The Builder Barracks has 11 levels, the Spring Trap has 4 levels, the Battle Machine has 30 levels, the Army Camp cannot be upgraded, and the O.T.T.O Hut has 5 levels. Although the Star Laboratory and Builder Barracks appear in the shop, you are unable to purchase them as they were repaired when upgrading the Builder Hall to level 2. The Builder Hall has the same number and saw on top as the Builder's Hut and the Master Builder's Hut.
